GARY F.: Okay, it's me and I'm back. Let's get right to it and not waste any time. What do you say? Okay. If that's the way you feel about it, I'm just gonna ramble on and not make any sense for the next two or three minutes. How do you like that? Never mind. I don't like it already. Takes way too much effort. Here's Heather Hodgson to remind us that sooner or later it all gets real. I'm ( ) and you're listening to HOOD FM, Regina's only low watt radio broadcast system still trying to catch a train. Where the hell is Craigellachie anyway? I wish I knew.

HEATHER HODGSON/POETRY SHOW – RUNNING TIME: 29:30

GARY F.: Okay that does it for Difference and Defense a presentation of Aboriginal poetry. You are listening to HOOD FM: a written and spoken word event. Much thanks to Heather Hodgson and company for their very good work.
